Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Residential Conveyancing Fee Earner role at the Berkshire firm you are recruiting for through G2 Legal. Based in Maidenhead, I am well placed for the Woosehill, Wokingham office and the hybrid working arrangement.

I should be transparent at the outset: my background is in disputes, regulatory matters and legal advising rather than transactional conveyancing. I am therefore not putting myself forward as an experienced conveyancer, and I recognise this role is primarily targeted at qualified solicitors or licensed conveyancers with a residential property caseload. However, if the firm is also considering paralegals or junior fee earners to support the conveyancing team, I would welcome the conversation.

What I can offer is a strong foundation that translates directly into property law support work. During my year at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner, I spent six months in the Real Estate Disputes team, conducting legal and factual research on leasehold issues, rights of light, easements and landlord and tenant matters, preparing electronic hearing bundles, assisting with skeleton arguments and managing large volumes of documentation across competing deadlines. I am familiar with iManage and electronic filing systems, and I have a demonstrable record of running matters with care, accuracy and minimal supervision.

At Citizens Advice East Berkshire, I manage a varied caseload — including housing matters — from initial client interview through to submission, drafting correspondence, preparing document schedules and advising clients in plain terms on procedural requirements. I am accustomed to working with vulnerable individuals under time pressure and to a high standard of accuracy.

My LLB at UCL included Commercial Law, Company Law and Advanced Contract Law, and I hold an LLM in Comparative and International Dispute Resolution from Queen Mary. I am a careful, organised researcher and drafter, and I take compliance and detail seriously.

I am genuinely interested in property law, and a firm with the Thames Valley reputation you describe would be an excellent environment in which to develop. I am happy to discuss where, if anywhere, my profile fits the team's current needs.

Thank you for your time.

Yours sincerely,
Maria Fernanda Silva
