Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Residential Property Paralegal role at Field Seymour Parkes. I am an organised and proactive paralegal with a strong foundation in document management, case preparation and client communication, and I am based locally in the Reading/Maidenhead area.

During my year-long placement at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner, I worked directly within the Real Estate Disputes team, supporting hearing preparation, preparing electronic bundles, drafting client notes and conducting legal and factual research across rights of light, easements, leasehold issues, and landlord and tenant disputes. I managed large volumes of confidential documents across several concurrent matters, tracked deadlines and assisted with court filings — experience that translates directly into supporting a busy residential property caseload.

Alongside that, my role as a Legal Adviser at Citizens Advice East Berkshire has sharpened the client-facing skills that residential conveyancing demands. I take detailed factual statements, advise clients on procedural requirements in plain terms, manage matters from instruction through to submission and maintain accurate, confidential case records. Many of my clients are navigating stressful, time-sensitive situations, and I am used to providing clear, practical guidance under those conditions.

My LLB from UCL included modules in Commercial Law and Company Law, and I have practical experience reviewing contracts and identifying risk — first at BCLP and later as a Legal Intern at Adobe, where I reviewed licensing agreements, confidentiality provisions and data-processing terms. I am comfortable working with iManage and electronic filing portals, and I pick up case management systems quickly.

Field Seymour Parkes has a strong reputation for delivering exceptional client service, and that is the standard I hold myself to. I would welcome the opportunity to contribute to your Residential Property team and to develop my career in this area.

Thank you for considering my application. I am available at your convenience for interview.

Yours sincerely,
Maria Fernanda Silva
