I am applying for the Shift Supervisor role at EG on the Move's new Reading store. While my background is in legal work rather than food and beverage retail, I want to be straightforward about why I am applying: I am looking for part-time work that fits around my LLM studies and existing commitments, and I am confident I can contribute reliably and competently from day one.

Through my current role as a Legal Adviser at Citizens Advice East Berkshire, I manage a high volume of client-facing interactions daily, often with vulnerable individuals in pressured circumstances. I am comfortable taking responsibility, keeping processes running accurately under time pressure, and communicating clearly with a wide range of people. These are habits I would carry directly into a supervisory role.

At BCLP, I worked as the sole junior on a complex arbitration matter shortly before a significant submission deadline, coordinating documents, tracking outstanding actions across the team, and ensuring nothing was missed. That kind of operational ownership — keeping multiple moving parts on track while maintaining accuracy — translates well to shift supervision, cash handling and opening and closing procedures.

I pick up processes and systems quickly, take detail seriously, and understand that a well-run shift depends on consistent standards and good communication between team members. I am a reliable, organised person who takes ownership of whatever I am responsible for.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss the role further. Thank you for considering my application.

Yours sincerely,
Maria Silva
