Dear Hiring Manager,

I am applying for the Legal Secretary / Legal Assistant position in your Conveyancing team at Canary Wharf. My background supporting complex litigation and real estate disputes at BCLP, combined with my experience managing case files and client correspondence at Citizens Advice, means I can contribute to a busy conveyancing practice from day one.

At BCLP, I spent six months in the Real Estate Disputes team, where I prepared electronic hearing bundles, assisted with skeleton arguments, maintained matter records on iManage, and tracked deadlines across several concurrent matters. I also handled court filings and assisted with matter opening and closure, which gave me a practical understanding of how property-related legal work is organised and progressed. Managing large volumes of confidential documents under time pressure became routine, and I developed habits around file organisation that I have carried into every role since.

At Citizens Advice, I manage matters from initial client interview through to final submission. This involves drafting correspondence, preparing document schedules, maintaining confidential case records and meeting hard deadlines, often across multiple files at once. Working with clients who are anxious or unfamiliar with legal processes has made me careful about how I communicate procedural requirements, and that client-facing discipline translates directly to the kind of contact a legal assistant in a conveyancing team would have with buyers, sellers and third parties.

Conveyancing work is process-driven and deadline-sensitive, and the administrative and document-management experience I have built across BCLP and Citizens Advice maps well onto those demands. The Canary Wharf location also makes this a practical and appealing next step for me.

I would be glad to discuss my application further.

Yours sincerely,
Maria Silva
