Dear Hiring Manager,

I am applying for the Junior Legal PA role at the US law firm you are recruiting for, working within the Commercial Litigation team at partner level. My year at BCLP supporting a complex international arbitration and a real estate disputes practice gave me direct exposure to the demands of a busy litigation team, and I want to build on that foundation in a permanent role with a similar level of intensity.

At BCLP I supported partners and associates across both rotations. In the arbitration team I became the only junior on the matter shortly before a major submission deadline, coordinating documents across the team, tracking outstanding actions and helping ensure everything was filed on time. That experience taught me quickly how much of a litigation team's momentum depends on the person keeping the files organised and the deadlines visible. In the real estate disputes rotation I managed court filings, hearing arrangements, matter opening and closure, and deadline tracking across several matters running simultaneously. I used iManage to maintain matter records and handled large volumes of confidential documents under time pressure, which is the kind of administrative accuracy this role requires.

I have also supported billing and matter administration in a practical sense. At Citizens Advice I manage matters from instruction through to submission, preparing document schedules, maintaining confidential case records and meeting regulatory deadlines for clients with welfare, housing and employment issues. The volume and variety of matters running at once has sharpened my ability to prioritise without losing accuracy on any individual file.

What draws me to this role specifically is the chance to support partners in a high-volume commercial litigation practice. My BCLP placement confirmed that this is the environment I work best in, and I want a permanent position where I can develop the full range of PA and litigation support skills rather than rotating every six months. A role at partner level in an active disputes team is the next step that makes sense given where I am now.

Yours sincerely,

Maria Silva
